Hi Ehud and Nili,

So this is what I discovered about the board and initiative:

Serving on the board would give you a (potentially prominent) role within the US Chamber of Commerce, the largest business organization in the world. The Chamber represents nearly 3 million companies and 3,500 business organizations around the country.

· You would be a board member on the only national US-Israel business program in the US working with both governments and private sectors to strengthen bilateral commercial ties.

· The initiative will work with leading US corporate executives whose companies are investing in Israel.

· Other board members include: Ofra Strauss, Senator Norm Colman, Senator Evan Bayh, Itamar Rabinovitch, Sheldon Adelson, Curt Furgeson (who runs all of Coca-Cola's Middle East operation), Dale Horowitz (who runs Citi's work in the region), Malcolm Hoenlein, Keith Elliott (Head of Noble Energy's Middle East Program), Marc Rowan (Head of Apollo Private Equity).

It looks like a good crowd!

Shabbat shalom to you both!

Josh

Hi Josh,

I hope you are doing well.

We would like to get a letter to H.E. Barak inviting him to join the U.S.-Israel Business Initiative Board of Directors. If you have some ideas for how we could transmit the letter and some background information, we'd really appreciate it.

Shabbat Shalom,
Gabe
